Dataset 2 description

N = 5 healthy participants
The data from these participants correspond to resting-state data, which has 2 types of markers: “eyes open” and “eyes closed”.
You have one .set file for each participant; these are already preprocessed, so you can start from here to make your tool.